

Dear Bradbury Resident,

Effective today at 4:00pm, the Evacuation Warning for all areas will be lifted within Bradbury, Arcadia, Duarte, Monrovia and Sierra Madre.

The hard work and efforts of the multi-agency firefighting crews, and cooperating partners, resulted in lifting the evacuation warning for residents in the communities listed above. Crews are still working on fully controlling the fire, as it continues to grow to the north. As of this morning, the fire was approximately 91,017 acres in size, 15% contained, and had 1,663 personnel assigned to it.

The cities of Pasadena and Altadena remain under Evacuation Warning Orders. There are additional areas that remain under Warning Orders and Evacuation Orders, but this does not include Bradbury or the surrounding communities.
